Meeting, lunch, and program are 11:00 - 1:30

General Meeting Reservation/Cancellation Policy.
The General Meeting/Lunch fee is $30, effective 6-1-2025.
A late fee of $10 per each late luncheon registration will be added to the base luncheon cost when the registration is made after the Sunday luncheon deadline, starting 3/1/2025.

Refunds can be issued only for registrations cancelled before the deadline of the General Meeting. However, each member may cancel a reservation after the Sunday deadline one time per year, in the case of a family or medical emergency, and still receive a refund. All cancellations, and requests for refunds, both before and after the deadline, must be requested directly to the Luncheon Chair.

General Meeting/Lunch payments may be waived by the Board on an individual basis.

Carpool Policy That Applies to Only Those Events That Have Official Carpools Arranged by Group Leaders.

A flat fee of $5 is to be paid by carpool riders to the volunteer driver for carpools organized to provide transportation to special activities. If additional monies are necessary for longer trips or toll fees, the group leaders will let participants know when the event invitation is sent.

RRNN Event Participation Policy. Prospective members who have never been a member of RRNN may attend each function only once prior to joining.

Previous members who live within a 50-mile radius of the Round Rock City limits and whose dues have not been paid during the previous 24 months may not attend any RRNN function, with one exception for Saturday Night Social, as defined below.

Previous members who live within a 50-mile radius of the Round Rock City limits and whose dues have not been paid for two (2) or more years may be reclassified as a prospective new member and may enjoy the benefits available to prospective new members.

Previous members who live outside a 50-mile radius from the Round Rock City limits, as well as out-of-town guests, may attend functions as guests, if space is available.

To participate in an Interest Group, the member's dues must be current and the member must meet attendance guidelines established by the Interest Group leader.

Men who are relatives, partners or friends of a member may repeatedly participate in games interest groups played by "couples" or repeatedly attend as guests at any events for which the New Neighbors Board has extended the invitation to friends and family members.

The Saturday Night Social interest group, whose events are envisioned as community-building and recruiting opportunities, is exempt from the rules of the Participation Policy, thereby enabling guests to attend more than once without joining New Neighbors, and also allowing ex-members to attend without rejoining.

The Board may waive the requirements of this section due to special circumstances.

Interest Group Leader Responsibilities. Interest Group leaders are responsible for verifying that all participants are current RRNN members. This includes excluding participants who are not RRNN members from all invitation lists. If substitutes are needed, preference must be given to RRNN Members. Meetings of Interest Groups may not conflict with events where RRNN itself is the host, such as General Meetings/Luncheons, Coffee Time and Morning Socials, where prospective members may attend.

Exception. There is one location exception to the Participation Policy: The Allen R. Baca Center requires activities of non-rent-paying groups, such as RRNN, to be open to the public.

Establishing a New Interest Group. New Interest Groups are encouraged and may be formed at any time during the year. Contact the Interest Groups Manager at rrnn.interestgc@gmail.com with your ideas. The Interest Groups Manager will provide the information necessary to establish and administer the group.

Membership. The Membership Directory is for the exclusive use of Round Rock New Neighbors members. No distribution or reproduction of any kind, printed or downloaded, of the Membership Directory is authorized. The Directory cannot be used for solicitation purposes or personal gain by RRNN members. Email addresses may be used to communicate organization business.

If the Board determines that a member has used the membership roster, or allowed a third party to use the roster, for solicitation purposes or personal gain, the Board will issue a warning to that member. If a warning is issued and the member continues to misuse the membership roster, then that individual's membership in RRNN will be canceled.

Members will receive two reminders prior to the expiration of their memberships. Another reminder will be sent after a membership expires. Members' profiles will be removed fourteen days after their memberships expire and all privileges will cease until they rejoin.

In order to honor our organization's commitment to friendship, the Vice President for Membership and/or the President may make a decision to temporarily extend the membership of an active member who is in the midst of a personal or family circumstance that prevents the member from being aware of or able to renew their expiring membership dues. The membership may be extended without payment, until such time as it can be determined if the member chooses to renew as circumstances improve. This extended grace period ensures that the member will not be removed from the Directory or any interest groups.

RRNN Website. The RRNN Website account will be managed by the Board appointed Website Manager.

Members can access the Members section by logging in with their user name and password. Individual members may change only their own password and profile information.

The Membership Directory is password protected and viewable only by members.

Photographs on this site may not be displayed on another website or reproduced for any use without the permission of the Website Manager.

The Board will assign appropriate RRNN members to have administrative access to the website.

Facebook and Other Public and Social Media. The official RRNN Facebook page is a non-profit organization listing entitled “New Neighbors of Greater Round Rock” managed by a member appointed by the Board.

No member may create any Facebook page or account at any other social media sites, websites or blogs that uses the name Round Rock New Neighbors or New Neighbors of Greater Round Rock, in whole or in part, without the advance permission of the Board.
